IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

CHIEF SECRETARIAT

Issues certain Rules re Government Servants' Conduct.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

ORDER No. CH. S. 1747-807—MISC. 20-52-1, DATED BANGALORE, THE 15TH MAY 1952.

Subject: Acceptance of gifts by Government servants and public demonstrations in honour of them.

The attention of Heads of Departments, Deputy Commissioners of Districts and other officers is invited to Rules 2 to 11 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules in the matter of acceptance of gifts by Government servants and public demonstrations in honour of them and to the message dated 22nd November 1949, by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India in that behalf which is reproduced below for information

"It has long been the custom for public and sometimes private organisations to present addresses of welcome to persons they seek to honour. These addresses of welcome are enclosed in caskets of varying value. Sometimes the caskets are of silver, sometimes even gold. I have repeatedly urged that such addresses of welcome should not be placed in expensive caskets. In particular, gold and silver should be avoided, as well as, of course, any form of jewels or precious stones. Beauty and artistic excellence do not depend upon expensive metals and stones.

"Mahatma Gandhi was against the practice of giving expensive caskets. At any time this is to be avoided, but, more especially, at the present moment when there is the utmost need for economy, such extravagance is not only uncalled for but rather improper.

"I should also like to add that it is not in the fitness of things for Government servants to be presented with such caskets by public organisations. This embarrasses them and is not a suitable procedure to follow.

"I trust that provincial Governments and Ministers will be good enough to follow the practice indicated above and to advise their officers accordingly."

2. The Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners should see that the rules are strictly observed and impress on all concerned the spirit of these rules and the Hon'ble Prime Minister's message.

E. V. GANAPATI IYER,
Chief Secretary to Government.
